

What's your hobbies?

What's your favourite hobby? What are your hobbies?
What hobby do you like best?

I'm 15 years old. - Me, too.

I'm 15. – So am I.  (“For me, too” heißt Mir auch)

Hersbruck is wonderful, or?

Hersbruck is wonderful, isn't it?

I'm playing football.

No, you're not. You play football three times a week.

I am playing since 2 years.

I have been playing for 2 years.
since 2009.

What are you doing? -
I'm waiting for the test to begin.

What do you do?
I'm still a student.

In which school do you go?

Which school do you go to?

I went home and learned for the speaking test. I studied for the test (learn = understand)

... as the band trained.... trainieren = practice

I look TV I watch TV

I hear music You can hear something, but you listen to music.

All were happy and all was ok. Everybody was happy and everything was ok.

I made my homework. I did my homework.

I made a picture. I took a picture.

We meet us at the station. We meet at the station. (meet im Englischen nicht reflexiv)

Have you any Do you have Have you got any

He's wearing a jeans. He's wearing jeans / a pair of jeans.

one child – two children | tʃɪldrən |

There are three peoples. one man people no plural

He's got almost no hair, but three hairs left.

I'm your meaning! I'm of the same opinion. I agree with you

He's so a nice boy. He's such a nice boy.