

to fall in love

to go steady (boyfriend) to get engaged (fiancée) (engagement rings)

to marry
(to walk down the aisle)

Wedding

(love and relationships)

bride      bridegroom

in a white dress      in a three-pieced suit (jacket, trousers & vest) bow-tie around the neck bridesmaid      best man wedding ceremony in a church / registry office held by a priest      by a justice of peace wedding reception

cutting the cake

throwing the bouquet

All single women present compete in catching it.
The woman who catches the bouquet is said to be the next who will marry.

no "Polterabend" in US/GB but

stag night

hen night

have / give / „throw“ a party to celebrate his "last night of freedom" or merely to spend time with his male friends

go to / attend a party

fight

cheat

break up

to divorce
to split up

single parent

A honeymoon is the traditional holiday
taken by newlyweds.

golden wedding anniversary (50th)